Our Prayer for this week

Our Prayer this week we celebrate the feast day of St Luke the Evangelist. He wrote the third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles. He never met Jesus but came to know him through his meeting with others. He is the patron saint of Physicians and Artists. His feast day is this coming Monday the 18th of October.

Remember the past, plan for the future, but live for today, because yesterday is gone and tomorrow may never come.

Luke was an Evangelist, the writer of the third Gospel. He never met Christ in person, but in his Gospel he says that he came to know about Jesus by talking to eyewitnesses to the events of Jesus' life, death, and Resurrection. Hearing those stories helped Luke to become a believer, and he wrote his Gospel so that others would come to know and love Jesus.

Luke was a doctor and he traveled with Saint Paul on his second missionary journey. In fact, Paul calls Luke his "beloved physician" (Colossians 4:14). Because he cared for the bodily needs of others, Luke is the patron saint of doctors. He is also the patron saint of artists because it is believed that he painted a famous portrait of Mary, our Blessed Mother.

"So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened"

Luke 11:9-10

CHILDREN'S CHATTER MATTERS

Focus: Identifying emotions and their impact on self and others.

Go to the following website and ask your child to select their favourite emotions poster.

<https://www.pinterest.com.au/pin/271060471300243889/?lp=true>

Print this off or write down this list of emotion words to guide your discussion.

Proud, angry, sad, confused, shy, surprised, content, happy, excited, embarrassed, worried, Scared, frustrated.

You can turn this into a memory or bingo game by making pairs of these words into cards.

Both of you make a face that shows this emotion. Discuss a time when you felt this way. Write down the types of words that make you feel this way. For example: "I can't believe you can spell that word" – "Frustrated". Discuss ways of dealing with this emotion. For example; Ignoring hurtful comments or using phrases such as "That's ok I'm working on it!"

While watching television or reading books discuss some of the emotions and reactions displayed by various characters. Ask what made them feel like that and did they react/ respond in the best way possible. What would they do differently?

Masks worn to save the world.

REFLECTION FROM LOYOLA PRESS, US SOCIETY OF JESUS

In this Sunday's Gospel, we continue to read from the section of Mark's Gospel that reports Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. Last Sunday we heard Jesus lament the particular challenges those with many possessions face in order to enter the Kingdom of God. Jesus then predicts his passion to the Twelve, who are amazed and afraid. In this part of Mark's Gospel, Jesus' words to his closest disciples seem to be intended to prepare them for the events that will occur in Jerusalem.

In today's Gospel, James and John ask to be given seats of honour when Jesus enters into his glory. Once again, the disciples seem to be selective in what they hear Jesus say. They want to share Jesus' glory, but do not appear to understand that his glory will be preceded by his suffering. Jesus notes their lack of understanding and predicts the suffering they will endure for the sake of the Gospel. Jesus says that the honour they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear what James and John have asked, Mark reports that they are indignant. Jesus takes the opportunity to teach them.

Jesus explains the importance of service and sacrifice in the life of a disciple. In particular, he seems to be preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles in the emerging Christian community. Echoing the Gospel we heard several weeks ago (on the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Mark 9:33-37), Jesus acknowledges that his teaching is countercultural. In today's Gospel, Jesus contrasts the dynamics within the community of disciples with those shown by the rulers of the Gentiles.

Following Jesus' example of sacrificial love continues to be countercultural in our day as well. We might take this opportunity to consider our models of authority and examine our own exercise of authority. On whose example do we model our leadership?

Loyola Press was founded in 1912 by Father William P. Lyons SJ as a non-profit Catholic publishing ministry of the Midwest Province of the Society of Jesus. His first published work was Loyola University's four-page school newspaper, The Maroon and Gold. Soon after, however, Fr. Lyons began publishing college textbooks, and Loyola Press swiftly grew in size and scope, having now served more than 40 million children and adults as they seek to grow academically, personally, and spiritually with assistance and inspiration from our textbooks, spirituality books for adults and children, and a growing array of multi-media resources. loyolapress.com

MISSION SUNDAY 24TH OCTOBER

A special collection will be taken up in our churches next week for Mission Sunday.

ST MALACHY'S SACRAMENTS

Oliver Young is preparing for Confirmation. Please pray for him and for his family as they prepare for his special day on Sunday 7th November.

Please also pray for the children who prepared for Reconciliation last year and who will shortly be involved in a Spirit Day prior to their first Reconciliation on Wednesday 3rd November.

FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK:

Monday 18th: St Luke Evangelist

Luke was an evangelist, a bringer of good news, who came to know Jesus by talking to eyewitnesses about the events of Jesus' life, death, and Resurrection. Hearing those stories helped Luke to become a believer, and he wrote his Gospel so that others would come to know and love Jesus.
