St Joseph's School Collection Notice

1. St Joseph's School collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents or guardians and family members before and during the course of a student's enrolment at St Joseph's School. This may be in writing or in the course of conversations and may be direct from the individual or from another source. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable St Joseph's School, Catholic Education Offices and the Catholic Education Commission of Victoria Ltd (CECV) to meet its educational, administrative and duty of care responsibilities to the student to enable them to take part in all the activities of St Joseph's School.
2. Some of the information St Joseph's School collects is to satisfy St Joseph's School's legal obligations, particularly to enable St Joseph's School to discharge its duty of care.
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a school require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts and Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. Health information about students (which includes information about any disability as defined by the Disability Discrimination Act 1992) is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988. St Joseph's School may require medical reports about students from time to time and may otherwise collect sensitive information about students and their families.
5. If any personal information requested by St Joseph's School is not provided, this may affect St Joseph's School's ability to enrol a student, respond to enquiries, provide the student with educational and support services or allow a person to visit St Joseph's School.
6. St Joseph's School may disclose personal and sensitive information for administrative, educational and support purposes (or may permit the information to be directly collected by third parties). This may include to:
 - School service providers such as the CECV, Catholic Education Offices, school governing bodies and other dioceses
 - third party service providers that provide online educational and assessment support services or applications (apps) these include Mathletics, School Interviews, the St Joseph's School App, which may include email and instant messaging
 - School systems, including the Integrated Catholic Online Network (ICON) and Google's 'G Suite' including Gmail. Limited personal information may be collected and processed or stored by these providers in connection with these services
 - CECV and Catholic Education Offices to discharge its responsibilities under the Australian Education Regulation 2013 (Regulation) and the Australian Education Act 2013 (Cth) (AE Act) relating to students with a disability, including ongoing evaluation of funding adequacy for individual students
 - CECV to support the training of selected staff in the use of schools' systems, such as ICON
 - another school to facilitate the transfer of a student
 - Federal and State government departments and agencies acting on behalf of the government e.g. for audit purposes
 - health service providers, and people providing educational support and health services to St Joseph's School, including specialist visiting teachers, sports coaches, volunteers, counsellors and providers of learning and assessment tools

- assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority
- people providing administrative and financial services to St Joseph's School
- anyone you authorise St Joseph's School to disclose information to; and
- anyone to whom St Joseph's School is required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including under child protection laws.

7. St Joseph's School is required by the Federal Australian Education Regulation (2013) and Australian Education Act 2013 (Cth) (AE Act) to collect and disclose certain information under the Nationally Consistent Collection of Data (NCCD) on students with a disability. St Joseph's School provides the required information at an individual student level to the Catholic Education Offices and the CECV, as an approved authority. Approved authorities must comply with reporting, record keeping and data quality assurance obligations under the NCCD. Student information provided to the federal government for the purpose of the NCCD does not explicitly identify any student.

8. Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians.

St Joseph's School uses cloud computing service providers to store personal information (which may include sensitive information) on their servers in the 'cloud'.

These servers located in Sydney Australia. fes-au1-baas.acronis.com

10. St Joseph's School makes reasonable efforts to be satisfied about the protection of any personal information that may be collected, processed and stored outside Australia in connection with any third party services and will endeavour to ensure it will be located in countries with substantially similar protections as the APPs.

11. When St Joseph's School uses Google's G-Suite including Gmail, some personal information (usually limited to name and email address) about students, parents or guardians may be transferred, stored and processed by Google in the United States, or in any other country through which Google provides these services or where it processes and stores information. This personal information will be stored and processed by Google in accordance with Google's terms and conditions stated in the G-Suite for Education Agreement which St Joseph's School entered into with Google.

12. St Joseph's School's Privacy Policy contains further information about its use of cloud and other third party service providers and any of their overseas locations] OR [The countries* in which the servers of cloud service providers and other third party service providers may be located are:

13. Where personal, including sensitive information is held by a cloud computing service provider on behalf of CECV for educational and administrative purposes, it may be stored on servers located within or outside Australia.

14. School personnel and St Joseph's School's service providers, and the CECV and its service providers, may have the ability to access, monitor, use or disclose emails, communications (e.g. instant messaging), documents and associated administrative data for the purposes of administering the ICON system and ensuring its proper use.

15. St Joseph's School may disclose limited personal information to St Joseph's School parish to facilitate religious and sacramental programs, and other activities such as fundraising.

16. St Joseph's School's Privacy Policy is accessible via St Joseph's School website, newsletter, handbook, or from St Joseph's School office. The policy sets out how parents, guardians or students may seek access to, and correction of their personal information which St Joseph's School has collected and holds. However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or may result in a breach of St Joseph's School's duty of care to the student, or where students have provided information in confidence. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons if appropriate.

17. St Joseph's School's Privacy Policy also sets out how parents, guardians, students and their family can make a complaint if they believe St Joseph's School has interfered with their privacy [and how the complaint will be handled].

18. St Joseph's School may engage in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. [It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in St Joseph's School's fundraising activities solely for that purpose.] We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
19. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in School newsletters and magazines, on our intranet [and on our website]. This may include photographs and videos of student activities such as sporting events, school camps and school excursions. St Joseph's School will obtain permissions from the student's parent or guardian (and from the student if appropriate) prior to publication to enable St Joseph's School to include such photographs or videos [or other identifying material] in our promotional material or otherwise make this material available to the public such as on the internet. St Joseph's School may obtain permissions annually, or as part of the enrolment process. Permissions obtained at enrolment may apply for the duration of the student's enrolment at St Joseph's School unless St Joseph's School is notified otherwise. Annually, St Joseph's School will remind parents and guardians to notify St Joseph's School if they wish to vary the permissions previously provided. We may include student's and parents' or guardians' contact details in a class list and School directory.
20. If you provide St Joseph's School with the personal information of others, such as other family members, doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them you are disclosing that information to St Joseph's School and why, that they can request access to and correction of that information if they wish and to also refer them to St Joseph's School's Privacy Policy for further details about such requests and how St Joseph's School otherwise handles personal information it
